Residential on 0.11 Acres

N/A, Staten Island, NY

Welcome to this spacious Colonial-style home located on a large corner lot in the Richmondtown section. This property offers a perfect blend of generous space and classic charm. On the main floor, you are greeted by a foyer which leads to an enormous living space which includes: a living room, a large dining room, a family/sun lounge with sliding doors, an open kitchen layout with a second dining area. The custom kitchen boasts countertops, and an island for added workspace, stainless steel appliances, dishwasher, and garbage disposal. The sliding doors lead to a beautiful sunny porch/barbecue area and a backyard which had a wrap-around deck. Continuing on this main floor, you will notice a segregated bathroom and laundry area with a full-size washer and dryer. Upstairs, you'll find what seems like 3 similar bedrooms, and a beautifully tiled full bathroom, a full double-size hall closet plus a pull-down stairway which leads to a full size attic for even more storage. While each bedroom has spacious closets for storage, the master bedroom boasts 2 double closets plus a massive walk-in/pass-through changing/closet area. The other fully tiled bathroom includes a jacuzzi with a separate shower room adorned with windows and skylights. Access to the basement is on the main level, where there's also an additional outside side entrance. The huge basement, while unfinished, has multiple areas which includes: an exercise/pantry area, flows into a workshop which conveniently flows into the updated boiler and central air duct unit. There is extra storage space, and direct access to a well-lit double-car garage with a wide driveway. There is also a newly installed redundant drainage system along the inside edge of the garage to proactively manage any drainage needs. Fully fenced-in property, attached indoor access garage, patio, minutes to shopping, transportation, and highway.
