'No Flood Insurance Required' Fully renovated and move-in ready, this one-family detached High Ranch offers exceptional space, modern finishes, and thoughtful upgrades throughout. Featuring four spacious bedrooms and two full bathrooms, this home is designed for both comfort and style.

The main level showcases a formal living room and dining room with beautifully finished hardwood floors. The newly renovated kitchen features upgraded shaker-style cabinetry, elegant quartz countertops, and brand-new stainless steel appliances—perfect for everyday living and entertaining.

The full finished basement adds valuable versatility with a large living area, a kitchenette, and an upgraded Andersen sliding glass door that opens directly to the backyard. Outside, enjoy your private retreat with a heated inground pool, complete with a brand-new liner and jets, surrounded by custom stonework—ideal for relaxing or hosting guests.

For year-round comfort, the home includes both central forced air and split-unit systems, allowing for efficient and flexible climate control. Additional highlights include upgraded lighting, ample storage throughout, a one-car garage, and a private driveway.

The exterior features custom paver work in the front of the home, enhancing curb appeal and showcasing the attention to detail found throughout the property. Every element of this home has been carefully selected to provide a move-in-ready experience in a highly desirable location.
